A SAD AFFAIR

Lloyd Senteney Drowned While Bathing in Eagle Creek

Lloyd, the fourteen-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Senteney, was drowned yesterday while bathing in Eagle Creek in Brown county, O.

The little fellow had been on a visit to his grandparents in Brown county for a week past, and yesterday he left the house and went to the creek, not telling anyone where he intended going.

When the dinner hour came and he did not arrive a search was made and his clothes were discovered on the bank of the creek.

About an hour afterward his body was found in the creek.

His parents were immediately notified here, and left for the scene of the accident.

The remains were brought here this morning and the funeral will occur Monday.

Yesterday about noon a large leak in the water main in front of the clothing establishment of George H. Frank & Co. made itself known by throwing a volume of water out of the ground large enough to float a johnboat. The Water Company is now busy repairing it.

UNION MEETING.

At the Union Meeting at the Opera-house tomorrow night Rev. G. W. Bunton will preach the sermon and the choir of the Third Street M. E. Church will lead the singing. Everybody is cordially invited to attend and enjoy this service.

YOU WILL ALWAYS BE WELCOME....

At Our Services.

TOMORROW MORNING AT 10:45

The subject will be

"OUR LORD'S FIRST MIRACLE; OR, A LESSON ON MARRIAGE."

This sermon should be of great interest and profit to all. It contains some plain truth that we need to hear again and again. May we not expect your presence? Services begin and end promptly; we prefer to stop while you are wishing us to go on, rather than continue while you are wishing to go on.

A wholesale dry goods establishment that will be able to compete with Cincinnati and Louisville for Central and Eastern Kentucky trade is one of the enterprises projected for Lexington in the near future. The Bluegrass metropolis is planning to get even.

Beginning August 1st the rural free delivery carriers throughout the country will be allowed fifteen days leave of absence some time between that date and December 31st. They are granted this through the Postoffice Appropriation Bill and are to apply to the Fourth Assistant Postmaster General for the dates they desire off.

With many thanks to those who have so long and so generously favored me with their patronage, I will be under additional obligations to those indebted if they will make prompt settlement of bills, which are now ready at my former store, in order that my business may be closed up.

MOTHER MARY GONZAGA.

A special from Paris says the sad intelligence was received there Thursday of the death at Tacoma, Wash., of Mother Mary Gonzaga, Mother Superior of Visitation Academy of that city.

Mother Gonzaga was 80 years of age, and her death followed a lingering illness of paralysis.

She was Mother Superior of the Sisters of the Visitation Convent in this city many years ago, one of the best schools at that time in Kentucky.

Later she was identified with a similar institution in Paris, and in 1901 the school was transferred to Tacoma, Mother Gonzaga going with it.

She was a woman of unusual brilliancy of intellect and literary attainments, and had for sixty three years consecrated her life to the Church and school.

BOARD OF EDUCATION

The Board of Education met last night at the High School Building in adjourned session, President Nesbitt in the Chair, and members Thomas, Cochran, Taylor, Schwartz, Calvert and Geisel answering the rollcall, member Yazell coming afterward.

Mr. Cochran then resumed the reading of new Rules and Regulations, beginning at the duties of teachers and the various Committees of the Board.

The Christmas holiday was changed to read "from Christmas to New Year's Day, inclusive."

Several other changes were made as the reading progressed, and at 10 o'clock the Board adjourned to meet Tuesday night.

To Meet the Demand.

HOW? JUST READ BELOW.

The sample sale of muslin undergarments was the greatest sale of its kind ever held in Maysville. In fact 3 days after the sale started there was very little choice left.

The constant stream of customers for this underwear still continues, and to meet the demand we have gone through our entire stock of muslin underwear and marked same down to cost and soiled and mused pieces below cost, and with the samples in the window we shall place same on sale FRIDAY AND SATURDAY.

THE ROYAL WAIST SALE still continues. Choice $1.98, worth up to $7. Did you notice other merchants (not in Maysville) advertise same things for $3.98?

LOCAL HAPPENINGS.

The gossip at the sewing circle was all about the muslin underwear sale.

Miss Gertie—was wearing one of the sale petticoats for an outside skirt, but no one knew the difference.

Muslin underwear will be all the go this summer. Merz Bros. gowns will still be the fashionable sleeping garment.

There isn't a woman in town that don't wear muslin undergarments (we mean Merz Bros.)

There will be 50 weddings in town this fall and winter, if buying lots of underwear is the sign.

All white trimmed Kimonas are so cheap. Why not get up a Kimona party at "Beautiful Beechwood?"

Ladies' stocks, worth up to 50c, on sale Friday at 10c.

SAMUEL GOMPERS, President of the American Federation of Labor, has decided to lead in person the fight against Representative LITTLEFIELD of Maine; and right here is where Mr. GOMPERS displays bad judgment. Whenever an organization like his mixes up with politics, Waterloo is in sight.

THAT model of conservatism, The Philadelphia Ledger, delivers this deserved rap to a large class of temperance fanatics and impracticals—

"The canteen has been abolished from the homes for old soldiers, and as the veterans limp to the nearest grogery they will appreciate the unselfish devotion to their interests of a lot of people who do not care anything about them."

THE Louisville Times undoubtedly comes as near the truth as did CURT JETT and some others of the Hargis-Callahan witnesses when it concludes that "JAMES B. MARCUM came to his death by biting himself on the back of the neck," and that the leaden bullets found in his body were due to the fact that he had lead fillings in his teeth.

THE average New Yorker is a confirmed joker. Recently seven employes at a stone crusher, who found one of their tired fellow-workers asleep, just for a "joke" tied him to the crusher, and the machine starting up unexpectedly, his body was run through it and ground to pieces. The joke was so successful that the hilarity of its perpetrators awoke the Policeman on the next block and he arrested the whole bunch.

Boston has a law which doesn't allow the sale in that city of milk which contains more than 500,000 bacteria per cubic centimeter; and now comes the Milk Inspector of Cincinnati with a report that the milk sold in his city has all the way from 900,000 to 150,000,000 of these inhabitants to a cubic centimeter. This looks like another attempt to compel Cincinnati mothers to feed their babes on the municipal beverage—beer.

EDITOR GREEN KELLER has written a song that should be set to music and sung by every other Editor in Kentucky. Here it is—

"The daily papers are making much ado about the breaking up of the Machine at Frankfort, but The Carlisle Mercury hails the breakup with delight. We want to see every Democratic aspirant in Kentucky make the race on his own merits. We want to see every slate made, broken to pieces, and we want the election and count so free and fair that no reasonable man can complain. If we are satisfied that any candidate gets his nomination by fraud we shall not support him."

"If Democracy means anything it means honesty and fair play, and the time has come for those who believe in this doctrine to let all candidates know that no crooked work goes. If the nominations are made honestly no doubt will arise as to the election next November."

"The political leaders should be wise enough to know that there is a great tendency toward independence among the voters."

"UNSIGHT, UNSEEN."

Secretary Shaw recently told a story on Representative Smith of Iowa, when the latter was a fledgling Attorney and anxious to make a reputation for himself. A prisoner was brought before the bar in the Criminal Court in Iowa, but he was not represented by a lawyer.

"Where is your lawyer?" inquired the Judge who presided.

"I have none," responded the prisoner.

"Why haven't you?"

"Haven't any money to pay a lawyer."

"Do you want a lawyer?" asked the Judge.

"Yes, your Honor."

"There is Mr. Walter I. Smith, John Brown, George Green," said the Judge, pointing to a lot of young Attorneys who were about the Court waiting for something to turn up, "and Mr. Alexander is out in the corridor."

The prisoner eyed the budding Attorneys in the Courtroom, and after a critical survey, stroked his chin and said, "Well, I guess I'll take Mr. Alexander."

The Ledger's Washington Letter

Gossip From the Nation's Busy Capital

Special Correspondence: Public Ledger.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 18th, 1906.
"God reigns and the Government at Washington still lives"—but where is the Capital of these United States of America at the present writing?

Technically the Capital is supposed to be at Washington, D. C., but de facto it is in the second story of a corner grocery at Oyster Bay, New York.

Who's running the Governmental machinery anyhow?
The President and Vice-President are neither one here.

The Congress has shut up shop and gone. The Supreme Court has followed suit. All the "Extraordinary Ambassadors" have skiddooed to the sad sea waves.

There is not a single member of the President's Cabinet here at the present time.

Yet the old Ship of State seems to be gliding on over the summer sea with every sail spread, carried on by the brisk wind of Republican prosperity, and all goes well.

The science of Government is reduced to a system in Washington. The 26,000 Departmental clerks, under their executive heads, keep things moving like clock-work and affairs run much smoother without the big bosses than with them. The residents of this city have learned to take things easy during the sweltering period. All Government employes are entitled to 30 days leave of absence each year with full pay, and besides, all Departments dismiss at 12:30 every Saturday and allow a full day's pay. The fact that these clerks draw a total of $27,000,000 a year in salaries is enough to show that they live easy and have a good time.

Secretary Taft is really the acting President of the United States during President Roosevelt's absence. Judge Taft's family is spending the heated term in the East, and he makes it a point to drop in here every few days just to see if the dome of the Capitol is on straight and the money all safe in the Treasury.

By the way, if any one wishes to locate the throbbing heart of our great country he should visit the big Treasury Building. Here is the cash box of the Nation now containing over a billion dollars in gold, silver and paper money. Here is the entire fiscal organism of the Government, and to stand in the great building one can imagine that he is in physical and actual touch with every branch of our great Governmental system. From the Treasury Building flows every dollar in circulation; every stamp and postal card; here is located the Revenue and Customs services receiving hundreds of millions annually; here is the diplomatic and consular service and scores of other important branches, including all the U. S. mail and postal

However, there is something doing here all the time and one need never spend a dull moment.

The last of the theaters closes next week, and many of the Churches have sent their Pastors and Rectors on their vacations. One of the greatest attractions of this city is the number of its handsome Churches and the eloquence and learning of the Preachers.

The Catholics lead in number here, followed by the Episcopalians. St. Patrick's Church is the principal Catholic Church, but a magnificent Catholic Cathedral is now in process of construction. Father Stafford of St. Patrick's is one of the great Preachers of Washington. Cardinal Gibbons has his seat at Baltimore, but comes here very often and has active charge of all Church matters. Cardinal Gibbons receives a salary of $4,000 a year yet he is a very poor man caused by his generosity to the poor. Recently the City Assessor of Baltimore sought the Cardinal to secure a list of his property.

The Cardinal smiled and said: "I have no property except this $4 silver watch."

Two of the great pulpit speakers here, according to my estimate, are Rev. Dr. Rolland Cotton Smith, Rector of St. John's Episcopal, and Rev. D. R. H. McKim, Rector of Epiphany Episcopal. It's a joy to listen to the forcible, elegant and eloquent, yet liberal manner in which these learned Doctors expound the Gospel. Not a word of dogmatic or sectarian can't be heard from them. Every sermon is a literary gem, not as flowery as the efforts of the late Dr. Talmadge, but much more logical and convincing and of the solid, soothing kind that reaches deep into the heart, mind and soul of men and women.

white Louisiana planter who married a colored woman. He died many years ago leaving a fortune of $1,100,000 to his colored wife and children. The children were all handsome men and women, were highly educated and traveled to finish their education. After her husband's death, the colored wife went to Ripley to reside with her son, John, and died there a few years ago.

Harrison Terrell, a venerable colored messenger in the War Department, died a few days ago. He was employed by General Grant and was present at his bedside at Mt. McGregor when the General expired.

Does not Sambo Africanus enjoy Washington! The other day we saw a handsome white girl escorted to a streetcar by a black waiter from a nearby hotel, and when the female boarded the car she shook hands with the darkey and then threw him several kisses. The indignant white people who witnessed the disgusting scene hissed at her and several oaths were heard on the car.

The past week in Smithsonian Park, we saw a well dressed colored couple occupying a settee. The man had his head in the woman's lap and she was fanning him to sleep.

And the next day it snowed. This is a queer city in many respects. There are 300 Chinese in Washington, but they are well behaved and are the most industrious people here. They, of course, mainly "washee" for a living, but many of them are engaged in other business. They sell Chinese porcelain and bric-a-brac and gamble and smoke opium on the side. Last Saturday night the police raided a Chinese joint and arrested 75 Chinamen whom they caught with the gambling goods about them and marched them to jail. The proprietor of the den was fined and the others released.

On the evening of July 4th the Chinese display of patriotic fireworks eclipsed all other displays in the Capital City. The buildings were alive with the Stars and Stripes, while from every window poured a beautiful stream of the most expensive and gorgeous fireworks imaginable. Washington's Chinatown is right in the heart of the city, at and near Four-and-a-half street, S. W., South of Pennsylvania avenue. There are no Chinese shacks, but all are large, substantial white brick buildings, and everything is well kept, orderly and quiet as mice. The Chinese restaurants are well patronized by white people, and chop suey, particularly, is much in demand. It's a mélange of steen kinds of meats, rice and other vegetables, minus rats, birdsnests, noodle, poodle and kioodle. It is said to be a palatable and excellent dish and sells for about 20 cents.

Ledger's Washington Letter.

The Metropolitan M. E. Church, the principal and wealthiest belonging to the colored people of Washington, cost $100,000, lot and building. To the Pastor is paid $6,000 a year and it has a paid choir. Many of the members are wealthy and ride in their own automobiles.

There are 20,000 colored voters here, and this is said to be the main reason why there is no elective municipal Government in the District of Columbia. There are only about 25,000 resident whites who could have a vote, and 25,000 whites vote outside the District thus, the darkeys, who are generally adhesive and aggressive, would in all probability elect who they chose, or so dominate affairs as to throw the entire control into the hands of the Negro.

Therefore it will be many years before the present local system of government—three Commissioners acting under Congress—will be changed.

Dr. Oliver M. Atwood, colored, a brother of John S. Atwood of Ripley, O., is one of the members of the new Board of Education of the District. The Atwoods are sons of a very rich Politics is hot in Cincinnati. Yesterday morning Mayor Dempsey induced the Board of Public Service to suspend Superintendent Allison and Assistant Superintendent Costello of the House of Refuge. The Board granted the request, which came unexpectedly to all but those in the plot, and with no chance for either of the officials to be heard in any manner whatever.

Letitia S. Henderson was appointed guardian of Lewis D. Henderson, with Dr. S. W. Stevens as surety.

The cozy and happy home of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Stoker was the scene of a delightful assemblage last night. The gathering of young people was in honor of the birthday of their lovely young daughter, Miss Florence. About two score of lads and lassies graced the occasion with their smiling countenances, pretty frocks and light, gay demeanor. The home was brilliantly lighted and redolent with flowers, and above all that innate, loyal hospitality which comes from the heart and makes the recipient feel good all over.

The guests danced, played and were merry with games until playing made them tired, then the hostess had them refreshed with delicious ices and elegant cakes with bonmots on the side.

The young daughter of the household is accomplished in many ways, and that she deported herself with grace and ease while playing hostess is no surprise to her friends, for she is bright, happy and charming.

Mr. and Mrs. Stoker were here, there and everywhere seeing to the pleasure of their guests. Their daughter, Mrs. Forest Gorrell, and two beautiful children, who are visitors in the home, added much to the evening's enjoyment by graciousness and the extension of hospitality.

At a late hour the little folks reluctantly said good night to Miss Florence with the appended jewels of good wishes for many happy returns of the anniversary just closing in such a brilliant way.

Mr. and Mrs. Rolla Owens entertained last night a large party of friends in honor of the birthday anniversary of Mrs. Owens. Music and refreshments were the order, and the enjoyment of all was full and plenty. The guests departed at about 11 o'clock, wishing the hostess many returning anniversaries.

Deafness Cannot be Cured
by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O.

A Thorough Consideration

Is not only justice to the manufacturer, it is essential to the merchant—due consideration be given the lines on which he builds his custom. The third and last one who, however, should be the more interested is the one who wears, the one that pays the expenses, all that are included between the time it is doffed from the sheep until donned by man.

CONSIDERATION and COMPARISON

By customers and critics are invited to examine Clothing, Furnishings and Traveling Accessories that are properly constructed. Guaranteed to be higher grade and lower price than others offer. We call your attention especially to the style, fit and workmanship of the H. S. & M. for men, the Perfection for youths, while E. S. & Co. (Extra good) provide the proper wear for the little men. You can get the money in return for any article purchased here. Respectfully, Maysville citizens endorse them.

Mrs. Lizzie Bridges, wife of Elmer Bridges, of 206 West Third street, Maysville, Ky., says,

"In March, 1900, I gave a testimonial praising and recommending Doan's Kidney Pills and in it I told how I learned the great value of this remedy.

I had been troubled with a bad back and weak kidneys from girlhood, and in my efforts to find a cure I tried every medicine I could find, but without benefit until I began using Doan's Kidney Pills procured at J. Jas. Wood & Son's Drugstore. They proved just the remedy I needed, went right to the cause of the trouble and as a result brought relief that led me to testify in their favor. I have never been without Doan's Kidney Pills in the house since. Every spring I take a box whether symptoms of kidney trouble are apparent or not, and in this way keep the kidneys in good condition and guard against attacks of my old trouble."
